The Examination as set forth in the subpoena served upon you on October 12th is moving forward as scheduled on November 9, at 9:30. By Rule, we have seven hours to depose you. You may move the Court to reschedule if you so desire. Your email does not address the required document production. Your documents are overdue and we need them as soon as possible and no later than tomorrow.

Best,

Joe

Subject: RE: Rule 2004 Examination Sharma/RequiteLife

As you know, I was previously issued a subpoena and arranged my schedule to appear, and no one ever advised me that you were not prepared to proceed, thus causing unnecessary inconvenience and expense. I had planned on appearing on the 9th, however a closing involving parties from out of the country just had to be rescheduled for that day at noon. If you believe we can start at 3 and be done by 5 or 5:30 I can still appear; otherwise the deposition needs to be rescheduled.
